Legal groups drop Lakeshore parents

By RICH ADAMS

A Lakeshore couple seeking equal protection under Mississippi's school immunization law as granted to organized religious groups has been abandoned by South Mississippi Legal Services of Biloxi, Children's Defense Fund and American Civil Liberties Union of Jackson.

The couple, Donald and Marie Alley of Lower Bay Road, parents of 11 children—seven of school age—are currently without legal representation in the face of medical neglect charges.

The charges were brought against the couple last week by the Hancock County Welfare Department in an attempt to force vaccination of the Alley children through the Hancock County Youth Court.

The Alley's said they were told by the court to either have their children vaccinated or face jail and loss of their children.

Prior to being dropped as clients by the various legal aid agencies, the Alleys hoped to obtain injunctive relief from the court order.

In addition, Mrs. Alley has appealed to State Representative J. P. Compretta to seek legislative amendment of the immunization law honoring individual as well as religious beliefs.

She said a change in the law would protect her four youngest children from forced immunization when they reach school age.

Mrs. Alley said Compretta, while agreeing the law as currently written is discriminatory, told her no immediate relief is available through the legislature.

Court issues policy stand

OFFICIAL YOUTH COURT STATEMENT

In the Sept. 28, 1978 edition of the Sea Coast Echo, a front page story alluded to actions taken in the Hancock County Youth Court.

The story gave the impression that much of the information was gathered from the Youth Court records.

State law mandates that Youth Court records are confidential, and cannot be released to the public.

The reporter who covered the story was advised of this law when he contacted officials of the Youth Court.

Any information reported in the press was supplied by the others, and was not provided by the Hancock County Youth Court.

Youth Court officials will continue to maintain the confidentiality of Youth Court records.

"The Legislature does not convene again until January, 1979, and even then, any proposed changes would have to be processed through both Houses of the Legislature and their committees," Compretta said.

The parents had sought legal assistance in the matter from South Mississippi Legal Services which appointed its staff attorney Johnny Lakeshore Parents-Page A2

Air, sea search continues; fisherman lost in Bay area

By ELLIS CUEVAS

The owner of an abandoned boat which washed ashore in front of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church is feared drowned by law enforcement agencies.

The boat owned by George W. Nelson, 57, 3856 Meadowdale, Slidell, La. was reported to Bay police as being washed ashore at 8:30 p.m. without the motor running.

Bay Policemen Larry Ladner and Tony Lunsford arrived at the scene a few minutes before Dave Seller, Bay investigator.

As Bay police were investigating the drifting boat, a call was received from the U.S. Coast Guard reporting a fisherman overdue who had launched at Diamondhead Marina.

The boat under investigation, turned out to be the missing craft.

A U.S. Coast Guard helicopter was immediately on the scene and circled the Bay with three large searchlights until 1:30 a.m.

Civil Defense, Coast Guard Flotilla 33 Auxiliary and volunteer boats searched the Bay all night.

The search continued through Wednesday without turning up any clues to the whereabouts of Nelson.

Upon boarding the boat, Seller reported finding a pair of pants with wallet, small change, jacket, sandals, life jacket, and an opened tackle box on the rear deck.

The boat contained fishing tackle and all gear was in place. The key was in the on position and the throttle was set at half speed.

The boat, a 17-foot Glastron named Debbie Lou, contained one full tank and one half tank of fuel. A 120-horsepower Chrysler engine powered the boat.

The boat was towed to the end of St. Stanislaus pier and Civil Defense director Robert Boudin was notified. Seller and Boudin got in the boat, started it on first gear and ran it to the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club.

Bay Police Chief Douglas Williams said Mrs. Nelson reported her husband "usually fished between the two bridges."

In Nelson's pants was a box containing medicines, and Williams said upon identifying the number to Mrs. Nelson, that her husband had missed taking a 5 p.m. pill.

The box also contained nitroglycerine, but none of the tablets were missing. Nelson reportedly had a heart condition.

A Bay St. Louis resident reported to police seeing the boat earlier in the day between the two bridges with a man fishing from it.

Hancock County Sheriff's deputies drove Nelson's truck and trailer from Diamondhead to the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club to pick up the boat.

Six firms bid on Bouslog project

By ELLIS CUEVAS

Bay St. Louis Council received a total of six bids on the Bouslog sewer extension Tuesday. All bids, which ran from $3,500 to $40,000 over the project budget, were taken under advisement to enable the engineering firm of Joe Brown, Inc., to review the proposals.

Firms-submitting bids on the sewer extension project were W and S Construction Co., Jackson, total $131,359, alternate deduct $17,985; Thomas Hurd Construction, Baton Rouge, $123,382, alternate deduct $17,694; Beta Enterprises, Inc., Gulfport, $119,591, alternate deduct $15,935; Brahm Construction, Escatawpa, $132,531 alternate deduct $16,229; T.H. Whett Construction Co., Jackson, $135,059, alternate deduct $18,950; and Fertil Construction Co., Pascagoula, $139,163, alternate deduct $18,628.

The last sewer extension work in the Bouslog Street area was performed by Thomas Hurd Construction.

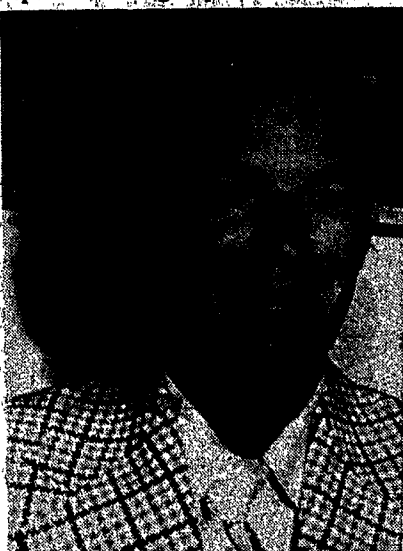

Mayor Larry Bennett said the City had in round figures $100,000 for the sewer extension project.

In other business Mayor Bennett reported to the Council the status of current police vehicles owned by the City. Bennett reported one 1978 Chevy Nova with 11,269 miles; 1976 Ford, $1,979; 1975 Chevy Impala, $14,306; 1978 Ford LTD, 9,326, and a vehicle which burned which had 57,720 miles. The City has received an insurance check

HAROLD F. NECAISE

H. F. Necaise announces for school board

Harold F. Necaise of Fenton has announced his candidacy for the Hancock County School Board seat from Beat 5.

"I would like to take this opportunity to announce my candidacy for the Hancock County School Board."

"As it will be impossible to visit each and every one in the county districts, I hereby solicit your vote and influence in the upcoming election on Nov. 7."

Necaise is a native of Rocky Hill Community and a resident of Fenton. He graduated from the Old Kili Elementary and Old Kili High School. Necaise works as a pipefitter for the Zachary Construction Co. at the Dupont plant site in Delisle.

He is married to the former Betty Swilley of Dedeaux. They have two children, Pattle, 13, in third level special education at Hancock North Central, and Darion, 5, at HNC elementary.

Dedication of church is Oct. 15

By LESLIE WILLIAMS

Day-long dedication services for the newly-renovated Bay St. Louis First Baptist Church on Main Street are slated for Sunday, Oct. 15, beginning at 9:45 a.m.

"Everyone is invited to the dedication," emphasized Rev. Nathan Barber, pastor.

Four former pastors of the church will speak at the services.

Rev. John Dearing, now Pastor of Bethel Baptist Church in Chesapeake, Va., will be the guest preacher. Dr. Schuyler Batson, presently pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church in Alexandria, La., will be keynote speaker.

Dr. Franklin Atkinson, professor at East Texas Bible College in Marshall, Texas, and full-time Evangelist from Montgomery, Ala., will also be there. A fire of unexplained origin, said Rev. Barber, caused $175,000 in damages to the building in May, 1977.

There was also approximately $20,000 in damages to contents in the church, added Barber.

Renovations were completed in April of 1978.

The dedication service is to give praise and thanksgiving for what God had done for us," said Rev. Barber, "we are dedicating the renovations to his work."

School board election not limited to Beat 5

By LESLIE WILLIAMS

"I don't really understand this going back to having elections county wide," contended Beat 2 Supervisor Alton Kellar to Hancock County Circuit Clerk and Registrar Henry Otis.

Kellar's reply came in response to an announcement by Otis at the Hancock County Board of Supervisors meeting Monday.

"Election commissioners of all five beats," said Otis, "unanimously agreed to allow voters in the Hancock County School District, rather than voters in Beat 5 to select a Hancock County Beat 5 School Board member."

Otis said the decision to allow voters in the Hancock County School District to select the Beat 5 Board of Education member resulted from an election commissioners meeting September 27.

"I called the Mississippi Attorney General's office in the first part of September to ask how the election for board of education member should be run," said Otis, "and it appeared from what Assistant Attorney General George Swindoll said, that I should run the election only in Beat 5."

"On September 21," continued Otis, "I received a call from Assistant Attorney General W.D. Coleman instructing me that he was not giving me any opinion or judgement, but only a suggestion that the election could be run in the Hancock County School District."

There were two cases filed in federal court in Biloxi concerning elections that were run county wide, said Otis, and the federal court upheld the county wide elections.

"I have no comment concerning why I voted to have the election held throughout the Hancock County School District, but I do know that the election commissioners and myself will not change to allowing Beat 5 voters to elect a Beat 5 Board of Education member until we receive an opinion in writing from the Mississippi Attorney General telling us to allow voters only in Beat 5 to vote for the candidates."

Lakeshore Parents...

Williams to help the couple. Williams declined to comment on his reasons for withdrawing his agency from the case, but Alley said Williams was withdrawing because "my wife, and I changed our minds about complying with the court order."

Alley also stated that a youth court official had threatened Williams with contempt of court charges stemming from a newspaper article written about the case last week.

Youth Court Administrator Charles Carter this week emphasized that Youth Court proceedings are confidential under state law. He issued an official statement on the case which is printed verbatim under a separate heading in this issue of the Echo.

Earlier this week, Rims Barber, board member of ACLU and staff member of Children's Defense Fund, said he was "shocked by the court's ultimatum."

"I believe this is a case where the Youth Court officials have overstepped their boundaries," said Barber.

"I am shocked by the court's ultimatum to the parents to get the children vaccinated or be jailed and lose the children he added.

"I'm not sure we can help the Alleys. Religious objection is a clear constitutional exemption. There is a difference between religious and personal beliefs, and personal beliefs are not covered in the exemption law," Barber hedged.

Alley said he and his wife hold personal beliefs against drug inoculations, subscribing rather to a philosophy of natural health with assistance from chiropractic adjustments if necessary.

The Alleys maintain they are being denied equal protection of the law as guaranteed in the 14th Amendment of the U. S. Constitution.

Barber called Mrs. Alley Wednesday and told her the ACLU could not provide her with legal assistance because her beliefs were not of a religious nature.

Now the parents have no legal counsel, and Mrs. Alley says she will take the children in for shots today.

The Alleys agreed last week at a Youth Court hearing to immunize the children rather than go to jail or lose their children, provided they were not forced to sign consent papers for the inoculations.

The Court agreed to accept responsibility for inoculation of the Alley children by the Health Department, Mrs. Alley said.

"Mr. Barber said he could handle our case if our objections were of a religious nature, but they aren't," said Mrs. Alley.

The 1978 Mississippi immunization law states:

"A certificate of exemption from vaccination for medical reasons may be offered on behalf of a child by a duly licensed physician and may be accepted by the local health officer when, in his opinion, such exemption will not cause undue risk to the community."

"A certificate of religious exemption may be offered on behalf of a child by an officer of a church of a recognized denomination."

"This certificate shall certify that parents or guardians of the child are bona fide members of a recognized denomination whose religious teachings require reliance on prayer or spiritual means of healing."

Alley explained, "I had my five of my children registered at St. Clare's at the beginning of the school year. The tuition was paid in advance, but the tuition money was returned and I was told by St. Clare's administration that my children couldn't enter school because they hadn't had their shots."

"When I talked to Barber, he said he didn't see why a letter from my parish priest stating my beliefs opposing the shots would be any different than a letter from a Christian Scientist minister as grounds for exemption," Alley continued.

"My wife and I went to the Youth Court last week and met in a room with Haas, Carter, and our attorney Williams," Alley said.

"Haas asked if my wife and I understood that we were ordered to have our children immunized and in school by October 11. When my wife said she didn't understand, Carter said, 'we would be held in contempt of court if we did not comply with the court order,' Alley added.

Alley said his only objective is to get his children in school.

"If I could get my children in school, the state could lock me up forever, for all I care. It would be stupid of the state to take my children and have 11 extra mouths to feed," Alley said.

"I feel like I am being unjustly crucified by the state for keeping my children out of school based on my beliefs. But right now, as I see it, I have no alternative but to get my children immunized," he added.

Alley, a road equipment operator for Hancock County, said he recently left a better paying job as a pressman with a New Orleans newspaper so he could be with his family.

"Financially, I don't have too much. My 11 children are my wealth," he said.

Mrs. Alley said she will continue her opposition to the forced inoculation of her children, short of going to jail.

"I just want people to know that I didn't get my children immunized on my own—I was shoved into it," said Mrs. Alley.

Corps elects small business for job

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers has awarded a $163,937 contract to Atlas Erection Company, Inc., of New Orleans, La., a small business firm, for highway bridge repairs to the overbank structure of the Old River Control Complex near Simesport in Concordia Parish, according to Colonel Thomas A. Sands, New Orleans District Engineer.

The work stretches along 3,500 feet of overbank structure and consists of fabricating and installing 43 structural steel saddles and assemblies to provide additional support for existing concrete girders, pressure grouting of cracked piers, and other incidental work.

This work is part of an ongoing program to improve the Old River Complex.

The improvement is scheduled for completion in about four months.

The contracts were awarded following advertisement and receipt of formal bids.

Everyone wants an I-10 exit

Local officials and concerned citizens cannot understand why there isn't a planned I-10 exit for the new Hancock County Hospitality Station.

All the Hospitality Stations we have ever seen always have an exit off the main highway. We wonder why are they trying to hide the Hancock County Hospitality Station.

There may be some, but we have never seen a Hospitality Station with a back door entrance.

We all realize the fact that the I-10 facility in Hancock is going to be the largest and best in the State, but it won't be of much benefit unless it has a front door entrance.

We do not know who was responsible for a decision to build a Hospitality Station without an I-10 entrance. We hope our elected officials will be successful in their efforts to have the plans changed.

We know our State Senator Martin Smith, State Representative J. P. Compretta, Hancock County Board of Supervisors and Bay St. Louis and Waveland elected officials have had meetings with the powers that be in trying to get the entrance changed.

These local officials have banded together with our neighboring Coast leaders as well as the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce and other Chambers along the Coast because they all know the importance of a front door to the Hospitality Station.

We have a feeling the powers to be in this case happen to be at the Federal level, but if enough pressure is put on them it is possible to accomplish this great need for our Hospitality Station.

It's Festival time

It's fun time for everyone in Hancock County this weekend with the 4th Annual Gumbo Festival at Necaise Crossing on tap.

In case you wonder, Necaise Crossing is in the northern part of Hancock County. Just take Highway 603 north and you will see a sign showing the location of the big Festival.

There will be some fine food, entertainment, and contests. It's a good time to meet old friends.

Many county residents have put long hours of hard work into this Festival. Reports we have are that this will be the best yet, as every year the Gumbo Festival gets bigger.

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors have declared this as Gumbo Festival week.

Folks will be coming from many states to enjoy this fine celebration, we hope you will drop in on Friday, Saturday, Sunday or all three days.

There will be headliners such as Jeannie C. Riley and Kitty Wells, banjo picking contest, fiddling contest, baby contest, cake baking, pie making, and much more. Something is bound to contribute a pleasant weekend for you.

If you like gumbo, Necaise Crossing is the place to go. That 500 gallon pot has very little chance of running out. See you at the Gumbo Festival.

Thanks for thinking of the Youth

We feel it is appropriate at this time to thank the Ford Motor Company and the National Football League on the national scene and locally Charlie's Ford and the Bay St. Louis Jaycees for sponsoring the Annual Punt, Pass and Kick contest.

The Punt, Pass and Kick contest for boys and girls between the ages of eight and thirteen, give our Youth an opportunity to show their skills.

The contest will be held Saturday at Bay High Tiger stadium at 10 a.m. Local winners will compete in district, and if they continue to win, they could be seen in the 1979 Super Bowl.

We realize the local contest is a start at the bottom, but every contestant who will appear in the Super Bowl for the finals will also start at the bottom.

Good luck to our local youth, we hope to see our victors in the Super Bowl.

Thanks to the Ford Motor Company, Charlie's Ford and the Bay St. Louis Jaycees and anyone else involved in such a fine program as the Annual Punt, Pass and Kick program.

We must all remember, the Youth of today are our leaders of tomorrow.

LETTERS

To The Editor

The dangers of gossip

Dear Editor:

This is to the people mainly in the Kiln area of Hancock County.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank my friends for all their prayers, masses and help during my 85 day hospital stay.

Thanks to God, nine doctors, and my husband, I was very lucky to pull through.

Unfortunately, it's not over yet. There are 2 surgeries I have to face.

Fortunately we did have an accident policy which did help out when my husband took a leave of absence at work, but it couldn't put a dent in any of my expenses.

Hospital bills are running over $50,000, not saying what the doctors and therapists will cost.

You people who are spreading rumors about our receiving $40,000 from Hertz Rent-A-Car are mighty mistaken.

We received nothing. So get your stories straight and stop spreading rumors which are not true, and concerning matters you know nothing about.

I would gladly give it back in exchange for my health.

Praises exercise participants

October 3, 1978

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen:

I surely must commend the ladies and men who took part in the mock plane crash.

By what I've read in the Sunday Echo, every agency and everyone knew just what to do even in the unpredicted delay Mobile Medic had, by the train blocking their way to the hospital.

I'm sure the personnel attended their patients.

This mock disaster is what a combination of people can do when they are together.

Too bad World Leaders can't all agree to work with one another. Their goals should be working for Peace.

Congratulations to all.

Sincerely,
Iris M. Koennen

Humane Society needs help

Editor

The Sea Coast Echo

Dear Sir:

An open letter to the people of Hancock County:

Dear Friends:

On June 4, 1978, the Bay-Waveland Humane Society, Inc., published an ad in this newspaper advising the citizens of Hancock County that a program was open to them by which they could receive help from the Society in having their dogs and cats sterilized. Information was given as to how to reach us for information. The ad ran until July 23, 1978.

From the first printing the program was a success, people responded enthusiastically. We ran a follow-up letter in this column on June 29, 1978, explaining in more detail the ramifications of the program. When that letter appeared the program became viable in every sense of the word.

Our first endeavor in the spay-neuter field phased out on August 31, 1978, and this letter will give the public a report on how well it succeeded.

The total number of animals sterilized was 41. Of this there were 26 dogs spayed, one neutered.

The total number of cats sterilized was 15. Of this 12 were spayed and three neutered.

The cost to the Society was $725.00, $665.00 for spaying dogs and cats, and $60.00 for neutering dogs and cats. We have projected the balance of the $1000.00 which we had allocated for this program, and it is being held for the appointments to come which run well into October.

Our medication bills for this same period amounted to $195.00. This includes the fee for an out of county veterinarian who so kindly and humanely made an emergency call on a Sunday afternoon to aid a pony who was desperately ill and in great pain. This ended in merciful euthanasia for the stricken animal. Our heartfelt thanks to this veterinarian, as well as to Sheriff Ladner's office who aided us when we received a report on the case.

And while we are expressing our appreciation, we wish to thank our veterinarian in Bay St. Louis who has been so helpful to us in making the spay-neuter program a success.

From this accounting the citizens of Hancock County, we are sure, will agree that the money donated to our Society is well spent. We are very proud of the fact that we are helping the animals (and the people too), in a very concrete manner.

Information from "Shelter Sense" of June, 1978, advises us that: "One litter of four puppies can result in 4,000 offspring in seven years' time." In view of these horrifying statistics our pride is justified, and we congratulate the owners of the animals who joined us in this program on their awareness and humane outlook.

We are still getting calls from people who wish to take advantage of our offer. It is with deep regret that we must tell them that we cannot help for the time being. But, we add, as soon as we earn more money, we, to quote General Douglas MacArthur, "shall return." If the public wants to assist us in doing this, they could patronize and give verbal publicity to our semi-annual rummage sale which is to be held this coming week-end, October 6 and 7, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., at 113 Jeff Davis in Waveland.

Our friends who truly believe in our efforts have donated such nice things. We urge the people to come browse and see for themselves.

A successful sale will translate into an immediate re-opening of our spay-neuter program. If anyone wishes more information relative to facts contained in this letter, call 487-9548, and we will be happy to furnish it. Please let us help you.

Sincerely,
BAY-WAVELAND HUMANE SOCIETY, INC.

Hancock County Chamber of Commerce

The Chamber's First Industrial Tour in Hancock County is scheduled for October 25. The bus will pick up Chamber members at 9 A.M. in the Bay St. Louis Shopping Mall, Hwy. 90 and Main St.

At 9:15 A.M., a stop will be made at Our Shopping Center in Waveland. A. J. Turner, industrial committee chairman, promises to have an informative and enjoyable day for all of us.

The first stop will be the VO-TECH Center. After touring Vo-Tech, we will go to NSTL and tour the site. Lunch will be at the cafeteria at NSTL.

We will arrive at PORT BIENVILLE INDUSTRIAL PARK around 2 p.m., and tour the different local industries. We should be back at the shopping centers around 4:15 p.m.

The tour is free to Chamber members. Lunch is dutch treat.

Please call your reservations in early. We would hate to disappoint you by not having enough room for everyone.

Industrial Showcase is scheduled for October 29-31 in Jackson. A. J. Turner is in charge and he will be happy to take tour exhibits and brochures with him to be displayed in the Chamber's booth.

For further information call the Chamber office or Marine Concrete at 533-5502.

"Jaws of Life" - The Chamber Board heard a presentation from Bob Boudin, Civil Defense director, at the last board meeting. It was brought to the board's attention that the "Jaws of Life" machine has been needed in Hancock County on four different occasions in the past two months.

It was the consensus of the board that the "Jaws of Life" campaign was one of extreme importance and the Board urges all businesses and individuals to donate to this worthy cause. Checks are to be made payable to "Jaws of Life" and can be deposited at Gulf National, Hancock or Merchants Banks.

Special Recognition should be given to the retailers that participated at the Hancock County Fair last week. Becky Markel, retail chairman, reports that for $2,650 on the burned police car, the mayor said.

Council authorized the mayor to advertise for two police cars in a package and also get individual bids on the two vehicles.

In emergency action, Council accepted a bid of $875 for a 25 horsepower outboard motor from Jack's Marine for use in the oxidation pond.

The mayor said the old motor was worn out and needed replacing. The oxidation pond has to be stirred up frequently to work properly, according to the mayor.

Council was unanimous in accepting a proposal by Advanced Developments Incorporated on development of a utility assessment report at the cost of $5,400.

In final action before recessing, Council requested a lump sum price from the firm of Moore and Powell on doing the annual city and utilities audits.

Council recessed until 5 p.m. Friday.

County roads damaged by overweight trucks

By LESLIE WILLIAMS
Beat 4 Supervisor Sam Perniciaro said at the Hancock Board of Supervisors meeting Monday he has recently asked State Agricultural and Industrial Board Director Mike Amos to help the county prevent tractor trailers from damaging county roads.
"The rigs have caused approximately $150,000 in damage to county roads," said Perniciaro.
The weight limit for county roads is 10 tons, he continued, but rigs vastly exceed this limit, with some trucks carrying loads up to 50 tons.

Several claims have been filed against oil companies as a result of their vehicles damaging county roads, added Perniciaro.

"All we want from the companies whose trucks have damaged our roads is assistance in repairing the roads they damaged," emphasized Walter Gex, board attorney.

Perniciaro said he plans to meet with the oil companies in the next two weeks to resolve the matter.

Also at the meeting Monday, the board approved L. J. Breaux's proposal to declare Oct. 2-8 as Gumbo Week in Hancock County.

The Retired Senior Citizen Volunteers received approval to purchase a Dodge Maxi Bus for $8,910. Bids are still being accepted for the Senior Citizens old mini bus.

Kosta Vlahos, candidate for Place 3 Circuit Court Judge, visited the council. He said he just came by to visit.

Beat 5 Supervisor Sam Travira and Sam Perniciaro of Beat 4 were appointed by the Board to investigate the need for a road in Beat 3 near Dedaux road.

The Board's next meeting will be at 9 a.m. Monday, Oct. 16.

PRJC enrollment up 1,333 on campus

Pearl River College's enrollment rose again this year from 1,267 to 1,333 full-time day students on the Poplarville campus.

The record number does not include students at the Hattiesburg, Hancock or Lamar County centers nor the vocational, technical and academic night class enrollees.

President Marvin R. White is very pleased with the increase because other junior colleges in the state have been reporting declines in their student body.

"It is encouraging that we can do more than hold our own," Dr. White said, "especially when the trend is for college campuses to decrease in their number of students."

Another important factor is that Pearl River will receive more money than allocated last year from the state and that, of course, means PRC can continue all phases of its educational programs.

"We operate on a tight budget," White said, "but fortunately we are financially in the black. And we can stay that way as long as our enrollment continues to increase."

A very active, personal type, recruiting program is probably responsible for the added students this year. At least that's what Willis Lott, director of admissions, thinks.

"I believe the recruiting practice employed this summer is responsible for our record breaking figures," Lott said.

This past summer nearly every graduating senior in the Pearl River six-county district was personally contacted, and given the many reasons to come to PRC. Displays were also set up at several shopping centers around the district.

Other factors contributing to PRC's success include the school's locality, suitability, economical fees and superior curriculum.

News from the Church of St. Ann

A thought for the day from the library of Father Canisius Hayes, pastor of St. Ann's Parish.

Before we set our hearts too much upon anything, let us examine how happy are they who already possess it.

Religion classes for high school students from St. Ann and St. John's Parishes preparing for the Sacrament of Confirmation will be held Sunday, October 8, in parish hall after the 9:15 a.m. Mass.

Mass First Friday, October 6, will be at 9 a.m. at St. Ann's Church.

St. Ann's Altar Society will hold its monthly meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, October 10, in parish hall.

Choir practice will be held at 7 p.m. every Tuesday in church. Father Hayes is asking all interested parishioners to join the group.

The Fall Series for the Portsmouth Class got underway Sunday with an afternoon race around the bay.

Seven Portsmouth skippers rigged their boats and set their spinnakers for a brisk sail and good competition. The weather proved to be ideal-crystal clear skies and a north wind moved these bigger boats through the water with ease.

Jack Bell was the leader for the day, easing in ahead of Anthony Trapani. Third place went to Basil Kennedy with fourth to Walter Gehrke; fifth to Lucien Gex; sixth to George Wood and seventh to Frank Hille. Finishes are based on corrected time not first across the line due to the difference in size and weight of the individual boats.

Other Portsmouth races will be held throughout the fall as long as the weather holds out. Any member interested in participating, please contact Basil Kennedy or call the club office for more information.

This weekend will be a quiet one for the BWYC. Members and guests are urged to come spend a lazy Sunday afternoon or a cool evening on the new deck now that the weather has changed for the better and before the winter chill sets in upon us.

Computer dates in at PRJC

Pearl River Junior College's first Computer Dating project, which got under way last semester under the guidance of Ms. Melodie Layne, head of the data processing department, will begin this semester with only a few changes in the operation.

The original purpose was to stimulate student's interest in computer science. There is a 50 cent charge for each student who wants his questionnaire put into the computer.

The money will be used by Phi Beta Lambda to send delegates to various state and local data processing contests at junior colleges.

Hawks face Panthers in HNC homecoming

By RICH ADAMS
The Hancock North Central Hawks have a "tough homecoming battle" Friday night as they host Apache Conference contender Lumberton, according to Hawk head coach Irvin Favre.

"Lumberton is tied for first place in the Apache Conference. They are big and fast, bigger than most teams of high school caliber," Favre said.

"The Lumberton defensive line averages 225 pounds, and they have three offensive runningbacks who can run a 10-flat hundred," he continued.

"Last year we squeezed by the Panthers, 9-6. They are very physical-it will be a very tough homecoming game," Favre added.

Coach Favre said his squad had trouble with the speed and defensive size in last year's encounter with Lumberton.

"They run right at a defensive line, with big backs, which makes them very difficult, almost impossible to stop. Our winning all depends on how well we can maneuver our defense against their strong offensive plays," Favre said.

"We are going to apply pressure with our defense, and there will be no changes in our offensive tactics," Favre added.

The Hawks are presently undefeated with a 5-0 record. The Panthers boast a 3-2 overall record.

Friday's homecoming activities will begin at 7:30 p.m. at HNC.

Rocks face conference leaders d'Iberville

By RICH ADAMS
The St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chows face the undefeated d'Iberville Warriors Friday in Biloxi in a game in which Rock head coach Billy Poole says his team will "give 100 percent all four quarters to win."

d'Iberville leads the Pascagoula River Conference with a 5-0 record, and have yet to be scored against.

"With no points scored against them and some 150 points they've scored against opponents, d'Iberville is going to be tough no matter what you line up against them," said coach Poole.

"We have to improve on ourselves. We made a lot of mistakes against Hancock North Central last week," he continued.

"We just have to get out on the field and do what we can do against them. If our runners get a little daylight, we can run against them," he added.

"There is nothing that can be said about this game, d'Iberville is tops, the best in the conference, and one of the best teams on the Gulf Coast," Poole said.

"Don't think we're not going to try. Our objective is still the same as always. We're going to get in there and give ourselves 100 percent all four quarters, to win," he added. Gametime in Biloxi is 7:30 p.m.

'No more power houses'

Tigers host Bearcats in "long time rivalry"

By RICH ADAMS
Following three defeats in a row against the three major powerhouses in the Pascagoula River Conference, d'Iberville, Pass Christian, and Hancock North Central, the Bay High Tigers hope for a victory Friday as they host the Long Beach Bearcats, a team Tiger head coach Billy Rhodes says is more on the Tigers' talent level.

"I'm glad we're over the three big teams. We'll be playing teams now that aren't quite as talented," Rhodes said.

"Long Beach is a young team with a good deal of talent, and if things go right for them, we're in for a tough game. If things go poorly for them and they make mistakes, they get constantly worse as the game progresses," he continued.

"They have a good football team, and this game is a long time rivalry for both teams," he added.

Coach Rhodes said his team needs a win to get their momentum going again.

"We have to get our offense on track again. This game will not be as physical and hard-hitting as the past three games, but it will be exciting," Rhodes said. The Tigers are 1-4 for the season, and Long Beach holds a 2-4 record.

Friday's game time at Tiger Stadium is 7:30 p.m.

Gulfview Elementary defeats Waveland, HNC

The Gulfview Elementary fifth and sixth-grade football team won two games last week against Waveland and Hancock North Central Elementaries to raise the Gulfview record to 2-1 in conference play and 3-1 for the overall season.

Monday the Bulldogs beat Waveland 8-0 in the final minute of the game on a two yard romp by workhorse Gene Davis.

Davis rushed for 68 yards in nine carries during Monday's game.

Davis added a two point conversion, led by fine blocking by Randy Schubert and Sheldon James.

"We moved the ball up and down the field all through the game," said Bulldog head coach Curtis Thaxton.

"Waveland was inside our 10 yard line three times, and fumbled all three times," he added.

Along with Davis, coach Thaxton cited Steve Fricke on offense for his 20 yards gained on the ground.

Defensive standouts were Fricke, with nine unassisted tackles, John Moran, Norris Chaisson, and Troy Ladner.

The Gulfview squad defeated HNC 14-12 Thursday on a Davis four yard run set up on a Fricke pass to Moran in the fourth quarter.

Davis rushed for 117 yards in Thursday's contest.

HNC scored on the opening series when the Hancock quarterback swept over the left end for a 40 yard touchdown.

In the second quarter Davis ran 40 yards for paydirt around the right side and also added the point after.

An on side kick was recovered by the HNC squad, and resulted in another score in the third quarter.

The conversion attempt was no good for the Hawks.

In the fourth quarter Davis scored to give the Bulldogs a lead, which they held on to for the remainder of the game.

"Our fine defense forced turnovers, and we possessed the ball well," said Thaxton.

Fine defensive play in the HNC game was shown by Rodney Shiyon, Mark Ncaise, Troy Ladner, and Donald Hudson.

The Gulfview seventh and eighth-graders travel to Pearl River Central tonight. Gametime is at 6 p.m.

Bands, beauties slated for PRC homecoming

Pearl River Junior College's annual homecoming is scheduled for Saturday, October 14.

The traditional homecoming parade, featuring area bands, the 1978 PRC Homecoming Court, campus clubs and organizations, and county, district and state dignitaries will begin forming at 1:30 p.m. in the west parking lot of the Dobie Holden Stadium. The actual parade through the streets of Poplarville will begin promptly at 3 p.m.

The Pearl River College Alumni Banquet is scheduled for the PRC Cafeteria at 6:15. Naming of the 1978 Alumnus of the Year will highlight the banquet. A person may join the Pearl River Alumni Association at the door.

Crowning of the 1978 PRC Queen and recognition of the court is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. in the Dobie Holden Stadium. Immediately following, the Pearl River College Wildcats will take on the East Central Warriors in an important south division contest.

At half time, the PRC band and String of Pearls will perform before the presentation of several Alumni awards.

For more information concerning the PRC parade, contact Al Brooks or Larry Stanford at 796-6111 or 795-4464.

Pirates face "platoon" of Yellowjackets at St. Martin

By RICH ADAMS

The Pass Christian Pirates travel to St. Martin's Friday to meet the Yellowjackets in a game that Pirate head coach Bob Lumpkin predicts will be "a tough, hard-hitting game."

"St. Martin got beat by Ocean Springs by a ten-point margin, and any team that can come that close to Ocean Springs is tough," said coach Lumpkin.

"They play with lots more players than we do. St. Martin probably has the largest school enrollment in the area. They play 'platoon football', with 26 men on offensive and defensive squads," he continued.

"We usually play 14 or 15 on our defensive and offensive squads," he added.

"The game will amount to numbers of the team against our endurance," he said.

Coach Lumpkin said he was disappointed with his defense in last week's win over Notre Dame.

"We only had the ball for eight plays in the second half. We have to stop people with our defense or else we can't get the ball to score. Our defense has to improve," he said.

Friday's contest begins at 7:30 p.m. at St. Martin.

PRC overcomes Itawamba, faces Bulldogs Saturday

Pearl River College overcame the mud, slush and a tough Itawamba defensive unit to register a 12-2 interdivisional contest here Saturday night.

Playing in a second half downpour, the Wildcats won its fourth win of the season and set up the annual grudge match with the undefeated Gulf Coast Bulldogs.

Itawamba took the first lead with 7:28 to go in the first quarter after sacking freshman Jody Simon in the end zone for a safety. Simon was lost for the remainder of the game with a dislocated shoulder.

Later in the first quarter, the Wildcats put together a 19 play drive that ended at the Indian four yard line. The Wildcats tried a field goal but it was wide to the left.

Early in the second quarter the Cats got on the board with a 20 yard pass from quarterback David Wyman to Andy Thomas. The extra point was no good and the Wildcats held onto a 6-2 advantage.

Kent Blankenship gave Pearl River another opportunity late in the first half as he intercepted his second pass of the half. Blankenship also recovered a fumble in the first 30 minutes.

The Pearl River threat was staved off again when the Cats missed a 28 yard field goal. The half ended 6-2.

At halftime the rain began and did not let up until late in the contest. The only score in the final stanza was a 63 yard run by Rusty Highstreet, a freshman from Prentiss Christian. The extra point was missed and the Wildcats held onto a 12-2 lead.

The rest of the game was a defensive struggle as both teams tried desperately to hold onto the ball. PRC fumbled six times and Itawamba four times.

Highstreet had another big night, racking up 115 yards on 8 tries. Anthony Williams also had a good night gathering 60 yards on 14 attempts.

Pearl River and Gulf Coast will meet this Saturday afternoon in the annual Wildcat-Bulldog match for state and national recognition.

The Perk Bulldogs are 5-0 on the season, ranked number six in the nation and tied with Jones for the south division lead. Pearl River's Wildcats are 4-1 at mid-season and one game back of the Bulldogs and Bobcats.

PRC was ranked as high as number 10 in the nation before losing to the Jones Bobcats two weeks ago.

But the overall rankings are just added incentive for these two clubs as the deep south Mississippi needs no other rewards than a victory over the other.

J.C. Arban, head coach of the Pearl River College Wildcats, believes the only way to beat the Gulf Coast Bulldogs this weekend is for his defensive unit to have a "super game."

"We must have a superb effort from everyone if we expect to stop the Bulldogs," Arban said. "And even then we'll have our hands full containing their quarterback, wide receivers and the two running back."

The Wildcat head coach was referring to quarterback Lewis Meant, who can scramble and pass the ball quite well. Backing him up are running backs Robert Farmer, a 215 pound, big and strong fullback and tailback. Myron Cook, a senior college transfer.

"To top that off they are well coached," Arban said, "you know that ole George (George Sekul) will have his team ready." The Bulldogs are also very fast and quick and can strike on any play.

Captains for this Saturday afternoon game will be Scott Arban, Robert May and Billy Amacker of Poplarville and Ronald Phillips of Hattiesburg. Game time is 2 p.m. in the Dobie Holden Stadium on the PRC campus.

Thigpen tells magnitude of act of kindness

"I expect to pass through this life but once. If, therefore, there be any kindness I can show, or any good thing I can do to any fellow-being, let me do it now, and not defer or neglect it, as I shall not pass this way again."

These lines have been credited to a number of men, including Sami Walter Foss. Wordsworth wrote, "The best portion of a good man's life is his little, nameless, unremembered acts of kindness."

Kindness is a language the dumb can speak, and the deaf can hear and understand.

We may scatter the seeds of kindness and courtesy about us at little or no expense.

Some of them will fall on good ground, and grow up into good feeling towards us in the minds of other, and all of them will bear the fruit of happiness in our own bosoms."

A little bit of kindness, when we are dejected and discouraged is long remembered, and many times is greatly magnified because we are dejected and discouraged. I am going to quote a short story that touched me as I read it:

"One hot summer day in the early 1880's a young medical student was going from house to house in a farming district in Maryland, selling books for the purpose of earning money to pay his college expenses.

Near the end of the day, overheated and thirsty, he called at a farmhouse and was met at the door by a bright happy girl in her teens. The visitor inquired of the young lady whether she would care to purchase some books, to which she answered, "My mother is a widow, and we have no money to buy books, whereupon the student asked whether she could give him a glass of cool water. Said she, "We have plenty of milk in the springhouse. Would you care for a glass of cold milk instead?"

"Yes, I would," he replied, "If it is not too much trouble. "No trouble at all," said the girl running to the spring house.

The thirsty student drank the cold milk thankfully.

The girls then offered him another glass of milk to which he replied, "I would enjoy it very much."

When he sought to pay her, the girl protested, "No, no."

"Why not?" he inquired.

"Well, my mother always taught us to be kind and hospitable to strangers, and that is what I am doing."

The student thanked her and plodded on his way.

Several years passed and one day, as the head of a hospital in which he performed operations, the one-time medical student, now a widely-known surgeon, was visiting the wards of the hospital when his eyes fell upon a face he remembered well, for he recognized in a moment his former benefactor, the girl who had given him a drink of cold milk on a hot summer day long ago.

The patient was too sick to recognize anyone, but he knew her.

Things began to happen. Activity seemed to focus around the woman from the farm. She was moved into a private room with nurses to wait on her, and everything, known to medical science was brought to bear upon her condition. The chief surgeon himself took particular interest in her case.

After weeks of medical and surgical attention, the patient recovered and was able to sit up in her room. One day the nurse said, "You are going home tomorrow."

"Oh, I am so glad," she responded, "but the cost of all this worries me - the bill must be very great."

"I'll go get it," said the nurse, and soon she placed the bill in the patient's hand.

As the woman looked over the items in the bill and read the staggering cost of her operation and hospital care, she wept. "When will I ever get it paid!" she exclaimed, but when she read a little farther down, her eyes caught sight of eight words which dried her tears.

The words were: "Paid in full by a glass of milk - Howard A. Kelly, M.D."

The former young book agent and the great Dr. Kelly, already a surgeon of much repute, were one and the same.

Friendliness, and cordiality are close kin to kindness, and make life more worth living for both the giver and the recipient. I have another story to tell you today that I believe you'll like very much. Here it is:

"One fine spring day as I walked along the street, I came to a long wide parking strip. Nasturtiums, nestling in a bed of fresh green foliage, covered the entire space like a Persian carpet - orange, yellow, red - of living beauty.

Pausing, I stood there, lost in admiration. Then, I saw a neatly painted sign: "Stop and pick a bouquet."

Drawing a sharp breath, I looked about me in amazement. Who planted these beautiful flowers? Do they really mean it. I wondered, remembering other gardens with forbidding signs on them. Still unbelieving, I looked for a house, and the owner. Instead of a home, there was a service station and attendant, who was also the owner.

"Did you plant these flowers?" I asked hesitantly. The man smiled warmly. "I did," he replied. "Right from seed, ma'am. I planted and cultivated that bit of garden spot myself." His pride was apparent. "Help yourself," he invited.

While I stopped and picked the fragrant blossoms, I found I had to question this man. "Isn't the privilege you offer sometimes abused?"

The man shook his head emphatically. "Never!" Then he told me more. It seemed that flowers did much more than brighten the corner of a drab city lot. The blossoms invited hurrying, hustling, passers-by to stop, to be thrilled by a dazzle of color, and warmed by a stranger's unexpected generosity.

"This little bit of garden does even more for me," the man confided. "My friends were limited because I spend much of the day right here. Now I mingle with strangers who stop to say thanks, and then linger on to chat. I've widened my interests and quickened my sense of being alive. This strip of blossoms is forever turning up a strange, new type - persons you would never suspect has any interest in flowers at all," he chuckled.

"Perhaps they haven't," I nodded wisely. Perhaps they pause to pay tribute to a person who is so friendly." With sudden intensity there came to me a new realization of the value of simple every day friendliness. In this instance, it took a small thing like garden seed and a welcoming sign to create a "parking strip of good-will."

On the whole, as you pass along through life, you will find most people are naturally friendly, but many lack the simple opportunity to express themselves or they do not know how to take advantage of such opportunities. We are not so different from one another. Circumstances, training, heredity casts us in dissimilar molds, yet we are all members of a common, struggling, human family. Approach a man with an honest desire to be friendly, and he will not misread your motives.

"Pick my flowers," invited this gracious, friendly man. "Come often, and bring others if you wish."

"Thank you," I returned gratefully.

I was in a smiling pleasant mood as I turned again on my way. Yes, I knew that I would return, if only to freshen my faith in the essential good will of man.

While this friendly filling station man gave no sign of being friendly just to get business, the activity at his place of business was most noticeable. During the 15 to 20 minutes that I lingered there, his helpers were busy servicing one car after another while he, like a gracious host, was greeting in the most friendly way all comers, pedestrians like myself who were buying nothing from him, as well as the customers of business.

I liked these two little stories and I thought you might like them too.

Sincerely,
S. Grady Thigpen

Horticulture Field Day is Thursday

The seventh annual Ornamental Horticulture Field Day is scheduled for Thursday, October 5, at the South Mississippi Research and Extension Center in Poplarville.

An all-day program packed full of information will be of special interest to persons engaged in production and marketing of ornamental crops, Hancock County Agent John Smith reported.

Feature Speakers for the event will be Dr. Al Elmer, University of Arkansas and Mr. Rudy Hough, Columbus, Mississippi. Dr. Elmer will speak on a subject presently on the minds of nurserymen in Mississippi, "A Certification Program for the Nurseryman."

Hough, a longtime nurseryman who has served for many years as Chairman of the Legislative Committee of the Mississippi Nurserymen's Association, will cover "Legislative Matters of Interest to Nurserymen." An important part of the program will be reports of Research and Extension accomplishments at the Research and Extension Center at Poplarville, Mississippi. Those that attend will have the opportunity to tour the Experimental Station and view firsthand the research projects in progress.

Your County Agent takes this means to encourage those that are engaged in the nursery business or are interested in getting into it to take advantage of this event. For further information concerning this field day, you may contact your County Agent or the South Mississippi Research and Extension Center, Poplarville.

Echoes

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rutherford Jr., were her brother-in-law and sister Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Floyd and her brother Louis Walle of River Ridge, La. Mr. Walle remained for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. R.V. Bliven recently returned from a visit with their son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bliven and family in Newburgh, Ind.

THE STRADIVARIUS OF SINGERS - World-renowned soprano Leontyne Price, originally of Laurel, who has been described as "the Stradivarius of singers," will sing works by American and European composers in a White House recital to be televised at 7 p.m. Sunday, on the Mississippi ETV Network. The program will be rebroadcast at 7 p.m., Tuesday, October 10.

Rabid bats seen in three counties

Three suspected cases of rabid bats found recently in Hinds, Madison, and Sunflower counties have been confirmed by the Mississippi State Board of Health's laboratory.

According to Dr. Durward Blakey, Chief of Disease Control, because the disease was found in solitary bats, not ones that reside in colonies, the State Board of Health has no way to eradicate the animals.

However, he emphasized that the public can protect themselves by having their dogs and cats vaccinated and by staying away from bats or any animal which appears to be behaving strangely.

"Domesticated animals with rabies will exhibit signs of either very aggressive or very passive behavior and may experience paralysis of the legs along with excessive salivation," said Dr. Blakey.

"Most of these symptoms will develop within a ten day period. However, wild animals often have the virus without developing any of these symptoms," he said.

According to Dr. Blakey, animals suspected of having rabies should be decapitated and the head sent to the Mississippi State Board of Health's laboratory. The county health department can be consulted about the proper method of transporting the head to the state laboratory.

Fall should bring low beef prices

Although beef prices this year are higher, like almost everything else, the Mississippi Cattle Industry Board points out that fall is the time of year when beef is traditionally in best supply. "That's why we're recommending consumers fill their freezers now with beef," said Tina Robertson, executive director, Mississippi Cattle Industry Board.

"By checking food store specials, shoppers should be able to find many attractive beef buys." She explained that fall is the time when beef producers historically send the most animals to market, thereby increasing supplies temporarily.

"The smart shopper will take advantage of this seasonal increase by stocking up," she noted.

The Mississippi Cattle Industry Board offers a special booklet to help shoppers buy beef for the freezer.

It's called Getting the Most from Freezer Beef Buys. This booklet contains dozens of tips on storage, wrapping, selection, grading, calculating costs and other related subjects.

STATE FAIR

The 119th Mississippi State Fair will be held on the fairgrounds complex in Jackson Tuesday, Oct. 10 through Tuesday, Oct. 17. Theme of this year's fair is "Our Fair is a Family Affair."

"We are attempting to have the greatest fair ever this year," said Jim Buck Ross, Chairman of the Mississippi Fair Commission which sponsors the fair.

Legislator opposes dumping

State Representative Dennis Dollar of Gulfport has announced his intention to introduce a bill during the 1979 session of the Mississippi Legislature which would prohibit the dumping of any and all nuclear waste in the State of Mississippi.

In a letter to several South Mississippi conservation groups and sportsmen's associations, Dollar said that he was "unalterably opposed to allowing our state to become a dumping ground for such a potentially dangerous substance."

Dollar said that similar legislation had already been prefiled in the State Senate, but that his House bill was necessary in order to "provide us with two fronts upon which to fight this extremely important battle."

He predicted the possibility that unless a state law outlawing the dumping of nuclear waste is enacted within the next few years, the Federal Government might at some point in the future impose it upon the state against its will.

Dollar said that he expects the bill to have a good chance of passage because "concerned citizens in South Mississippi, particularly individuals worried about the potential health hazard to local residents and sportsmen who fear its possible effect on local game, are rising up in opposition to making our state a garbage dump for nuclear waste."

TURNABOUT - Public television's "Turnabout" series visits television stars Donny and Marie Osmond and takes a look at the growing number of young people who are turning to highly structured religions seeking answers to today's complex problems. "Keeping the Faith" is the premiere program in "Turnabout's" second season and can be seen at 12 noon, Sunday, October 8, on the Mississippi ETV Network.

News Brief

LAW SCHOOL HOME - Officials of United Gas Pipe Line Company and the Mississippi College School of Law have announced plans for the donation of the United Gas Building in downtown Jackson to the College as a permanent home for its Law School.

ARTIST SERIES - Eight performances ranging from opera to jazz highlight the 1978-79 Artist Series program at The University of Mississippi. Internationally known guest artists and groups appear in the annual series at Ole Miss. The season opens Oct. 5 with a concert by acclaimed violinist Daniel Heifetz. Students with ID cards will be admitted free to the 8 p.m. concert in Fulton chapel. Tickets for non-students are $2 for adults and $1 for children and are available through the Central Ticket Office.

St. Clare's Sodality will elect

The Sodality of Our Lady of St. Clare's Parish held its monthly meeting September 26 in parish hall with Msgr. John Scanlon offering the opening prayer and Mrs. Eugene Dornain, Prefect, conducting the business session.

Mrs. Dornain appointed Mesdames Otto May, Conrad LeBlanc and Thomas Heath as a nominating committee for election of officers for the coming year.

Mrs. James Hubert announced Mrs. Joseph Roppolo will be in charge of the monthly luncheon and social to be held at 12:30 p.m. Wednesday October 11, in parish hall.

Following the business session a social hour was held for the 40 members attending.

The next meeting will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday, October 24, in parish hall.

Pass Gardeners set plant sale

"Trash and Treasures," an offering of bric-a-brac, flowerings, and other plants, myriad household items, books and games is slated for sale Saturday by the Pass Christian Garden Club.

The V.F.W. Hall on Scenic Drive in Pass Christian is sale location, 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. is the time, and reason for the event is to raise funds for a proposed Garden Club Center in Pass Christian.

Mrs. William H. Harrison, sale chairman, said "we have a large collection of ferns, as well as varied plants, along with containers, all of which will appeal to our gardeners along the coast."

"We also have a variety of other items," she added, "so come to our sale. Remember, one woman's trash is another's treasure, and most of us know, you often find just what you want on a sale table."

"You name it, we might have it—you'll just have to come and see," Mrs. Harrison concluded.

Other members of the sale committee are Mesdames Harry Hammett, C.D. Taylor Jr., Rory Rafferty, Edward Gamard Jr., John Simpson, Leon Morlas, Ronny Caire and Miss Adele Blelenberg.

Farmer input on soybeans feed grains due Oct. 10

The public has until Oct. 10 to submit ideas and comments on the 1979 feed grains and soybean programs to USDA's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS).

Franklin A. Gennin, executive director of the Pearl River-Hancock County ASCS Office, said comments must be received by the October deadline because most of the final determinations are to be made by Nov. 15.

Interested persons should comment on such items as whether barley and oats should be included in the feed grains program; whether there should be a set-aside requirement and a land diversion program, and if so, the extent of such provisions. Comments may also concern the amount of the national program acreage, the reduction required, if any, from previous year's harvested acreage to guarantee target price protection on total planted acreage, loan and purchase levels for the 1979 crops of corn, sorghum, barley, oats, and rye, including commodity eligibility, storage requirements, premiums and discounts," he added.

For soybeans, comments should include the loan and purchase levels for the 1979 crop, including commodity eligibility, storage requirements, premiums and discounts.

Mail comments to the acting director, Production Adjustment Division, ASCS, USDA, Room 3630, P.O. Box 2415, Washington, D.C. 20013.

YIELD FORMULAS

The Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) is considering revising its proven yield formulas for Feed Grains to include crops harvested for other than grain, according to Gennin.

Currently, only the crops a farmer harvests for grain count toward establishing a proven yield.

Yield determinations are the basis for federal farm program payments and some loans. Individual farm yields are currently established on the basis of their relationship to the established county "check" yield, except for those farmers who choose to prove their yields.

A task force has been appointed in Washington to consider ways to measure yields for feed grain crops that are used for other than grain.

Preharvest appraisal is one method under study. "We are encouraging every farmer interested in establishing a proven yield to request an appraisal from the ASCS office," Gennin said.

"It won't cost a cent, as if ASCS does change the formula, the appraisal could help many farmers prove yields that can't be proven under the present procedure."

The appraisal could help many farmers prove yields that can't be proven under the present procedure. The appraisal, a systematic field survey, is an estimate of the bushel or tonnage basis a crop would yield if harvested for grain. Interested farmers should visit the Pearl River-Hancock County ASCS Office at 103 West Cumberland Street, Poplarville, to request an appraisal, Gennin said.

JOB COUNSELOR - Judith A. Landin, interviewer for the Hancock County Rural Employment Training Service, a division of the Mississippi State Employment Service, recently was a guest speaker in the home economics department at Hancock North Central High School, speaking to a young adult living class about securing jobs. She demonstrates a job datagraph machine which pictures all job listings in Mississippi that are listed with state employment offices. She stressed importance of completing high school and acquiring skills.

Heritage study planned at USM

A symposium investigating Mississippi heritage, both past and present, and current development in the state, is planned for the University of Southern Mississippi campus Oct. 5-6.

The two day symposium, "Sense of Place and Public Policy in Mississippi" will feature addresses, forums, paper presentations, entertainment, traditional and modern arts and crafts, and folk life exhibits.

Some of the notable participants will include authors Willie Morris and Will Campbell; author and former U.S. House of Representatives Doorkeeper William "Fish-bait" Miller; and author-journalists Sarah McClendon and Turner Catledge.

A special music presentation of the symposium will feature fiddlers George McLeod and Mickey Davis and gospel music by the Heavenly Gospel Singers of Jackson.

Persons interested in participating in the "Sense of Place" symposium should contact: Conferences and Workshops, Southern Station Box 5136, Hattiesburg, 39401, or telephone 268-4285.

Keesler plans health professionals course

A human relations communications primer for health-related professionals will be held Oct. 18 and 19 at the Keesler Officers' Club from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The primer, sponsored by the Leadership and Development Committee of the USAF Medical Center, USM scientists participate in historic dig Excavation work on the William Johnson House in Natchez began last week, according to Dr. David M. Heisler of the University of Southern Mississippi Department of Sociology and Anthropology.

The excavators hope to uncover evidence of early architectural features of the house, verify the rebuilding of the back portion of the house and pinpoint the location of an "early" cistern and possible patio as indicated by maps. They will also probe the possibility that the present balcony on the front of the house was rebuilt. The changes in the house are thought to have taken place between 1892 and 1897.

Koch and Wilson, a New Orleans architectural firm, was retained by the Preservation Society of Ellicott Hill to handle preliminary work on the project. The firm also sought USM to do the actual excavation.

USM faculty research archaeologist Thomas Padgett is overseeing the project, with assistance from Heisler. Students working part-time make up the rest of the crew, which, according to Heisler, is "being assembled."

The excavation will continue through Nov. 15, funded by a $7,349 grant awarded for excavation purposes.

Citizens tell concern over gas prices

Bay St. Louis Councilmen Harry Favre and James Thrifley discussed rising utility rates with some 15 members of Concerned Citizens of Bay St. Louis at the group's meeting Wednesday, Sept. 27.

The officials told group members the City is unable to stabilize natural gas prices, and has no control over the price variations from month to month.

Concerned Citizens spokesman Geraldine Lang said the group is attempting to generate a petition which will be ultimately directed to the U.S. Congress for action on stabilizing natural gas prices. "Poor people and elderly persons on fixed incomes are severely hampered in their financial planning by the wildly fluctuating gas bills from one month to another," she explained.

Concerned Citizens, whose president this year is Rev. Jonny Saucier, plans to meet again Wednesday at 7 p.m. at St. Rose de Lima cafeteria.

Keesler will cost $15. Health professionals can earn 14 continuing education units by attending.

Pre-registration is encouraged and can be accomplished by sending a check or money order payable to the Leadership and Development Committee, USAF Medical Center-SGHN, Keesler AFB, 38634.

For further information, please contact Lt. Karen Bradley, 377-3627 or Lt. Theresa Quarles, 377-6230.

Musical set at Pascagoula Church

The Sanctuary Choir of Pascagoula's Calvary Baptist Church will present the musical, "FESTIVAL OF PRAISE" by Thurlow Spurr, Sunday October 8, 7 p.m.

"FESTIVAL OF PRAISE" is an experience in worship and praise, according to Rev. Byron Mathis. "This musical features many well-known numbers as: 'My Tribute,' 'Through It All,' 'We'll Be Going Home,' and 'The Church Triumphant,' he added.

Calvary's musical groups participating in the program are the Ladies' Trio, Double Quartette, Duets, and the Sanctuary Choir. Featured soloists will be Kathy Colvin, Dora Nell Odom, Teresa Heidelberg, Rev. James Miller, and Buddy Mathis.

Mrs. Byron Mathis is director of the Sanctuary Choir and the musical. Rev. James Miller, assistant pastor, will serve as narrator; Buddy Mathis will accompany the choir on the trumpet. Accompanists for the program will be Annette Graham, pianist and Vickie Hollingsworth, organist.

Rev. Byron Mathis, pastor, invites the public to attend "this most worshipful experience in music."

The Energy Force

We make housecalls to help you save energy and money.

We are Mississippi Power Company's new "energy" force. I'm Enercom—the good looking guy on the left and this is my partner—he's a Mississippi Power energy specialist and a real nice guy. As a team we can tell you how you can conserve energy and lower your electric bills. A lot has been said about this lately, generally speaking, but that's where we're different.

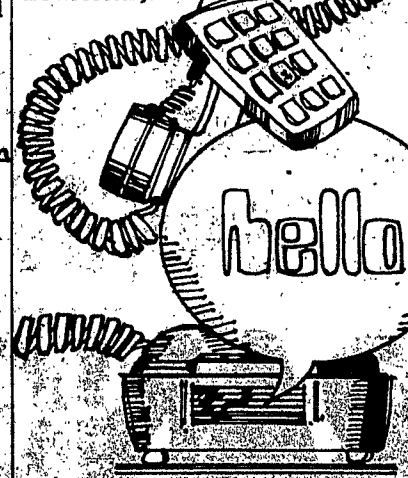

We don't just talk about it—we make house calls and actually show you on-the-spot what improvements your particular house needs, give estimates of how much it will cost you and how much you will save over a ten year period.

We're ready to do an energy analysis of your home. Just call your Mississippi Power Company office and set up an appointment for us to come to your house. We'll need some basic information for the analysis but don't worry you'll get all the details when you call. When my partner comes to your house, he will measure your square footage, insulation, EER and all that. Sound confusing? Not to him. He is an energy professional and knows what to look for and ask about.

This is where I come in. After he gathers all this information he will attach a funny looking calculator to your phone and call me at my energy headquarters in Maryland. (It's toll free, of course.) He will then code in all the information to my brilliant electronic brain to determine what energy recommendations are necessary.

This is the neat part. I will tell you and my partner what improvements I recommend, the estimated costs for contractor or "do-it-yourself" installation, estimated energy savings and estimated finance costs. Oh, yes, we computers can talk to you by phone in the comfort of your own home!

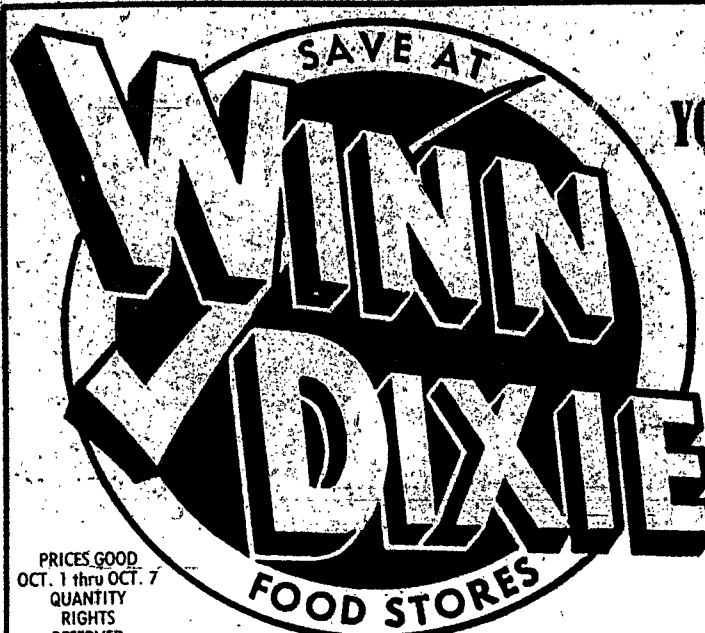

All this important energy information, customized for your own home... a really amazing experience for only $12.50. Small change considering the dollars you can save on your energy bills. Call Mississippi Power Company today and set up an appointment for my partner and me to come to your house.

Initiation ceremonies symbolize OLA friendship

By CYNTHIA REGAN
and SHARI SCAFFIDI
OLA Journalists

With big smiles and glittering costumes, the freshmen class at Our Lady's Academy was initiated into high school in recent morning ceremonies on the Academy campus.

The class enacted its version of Walt Disney World singing "It's a Senior World." Senior "big sisters" dressed their freshmen "little sisters" as characters from Walt Disney, following the tradition of Big Sister-Little Sister at OLA.

Each freshman appeared on stage at noon to present her version of Disney on Parade.

Skits included the marriage of Donald and Daisy Duck; a story of Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs; a flying lesson from Peter Pan, Tinker Bell, and Dumbo; and a song from Jimmy Cricket.

The morning's events were in preparation for the more serious official initiation at a candlelight ceremony that evening at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 13, in Our Lady of the Gulf Church.

Opening prayer was offered by Father Louis Lohan. Barbie Parker, president of the senior class, welcomed those attending. Krissy Koch, a freshman class president, offered a reading.

Michael Ryan, O.L.A. principal, discussed the value of the big-sister-little-sister program at the school.

Songs by big sisters and their little sisters throughout the ceremony further stressed the importance of friendship in this traditional occasion at O.L.A.

Following the lighting of a main candle on the church altar by Ryan, each big sister with her chosen little sister proceeded up the aisle while Mrs. Ollie McKenna provided background organ music.

Attired in long formal dresses, each girl carried a small white candle.

A white corsage with a maroon or white bow given to each girl by her big or little sister adorned each girl's dress.

Symbolizing a sisterly bond, each big sister lit her own candle and then, in turn lit that of her little sister.

Renee Rosetti presented a poem of friendship finalizing the formal portion of the ceremony. A reception followed in the school cafeteria.

Big sisters and their respective little sisters include Martha Aguero and Susan Robinson; Tammy Bourgeois and Carrie Comeaux; Stephanie Collins and Daneen Scarborough; Pam Farve and both Carrie Murtagh and Diane Caserta; Leslie Haverly and Maggie Marquez; Beverly Hill and Renee Lacoste; Carla Hille and Anne VanPesk. Also, Eloise Hitchcock and both Renee Rosetti and Jeane Starling; Renee Jarreau and Cynthia Peterson; Rebecca Jordan and Kim Brown; Suzi Kergosien and Hope Chinche; Lisa Kern and Dona Smith; Laurie Koch and both Kim Furman and Rachel Schmitt; Marie Lizana and Michelle Bourgeois; Sheila McDonnell and both Marilyn North and Crystal Labat.

Ruth Milazzo and Margaret Caruso; Myrthe North and Maureen Stacklin; Barbie Parker and Christy Long; Fran Sallinger and Terri Travis; Sharon Schmitt and Charlene Lacoste; Jane Scholzen and both Linne Cabel and Kassie Haas; Mary A. Skladgian and Rhonda Williamson.

Also, Kim Thomas-Hall and Debbie Turan; Cathy Toomey and Krissy Koch; Missy Treutel and Beth Schmitt; Susan Ward and Melanie Cuevas; Brenda Watson and Priscilla Snow; Beth Wilkerson and Ann Moran; Beth Wittman and Melissa Henly; Cathy Wolfe and Maria Carter; and Beverly Wyatt and Theresa Wittman.

TAMMY BOURGEOIS, Carrie Comeaux and Leslie Haverly are among seniors and freshmen of Our Lady's Academy at formal freshmen initiation ceremonies in Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church.

HIGH SCHOOL DAY

Students from throughout the state have been invited to the annual High School Junior College Day at Mississippi State University, to be held Oct. 14 in conjunction with Centennial Homecoming festivities. Activities will begin at 9 a.m. with displays and exhibits by the various colleges and schools on the Drill Field. Students and faculty members from each department will be on hand to answer questions about such things as enrollment, academic requirements, financial aid and college life in general. Entertainment will be provided by the MSU Stage Band and Madrigal Singers. Special $2 student tickets for the MSU-Florida State football game will be sold during the morning on a first-come, first-serve basis.
